

ALTERNATIVE DIRECTIONS TO THE JACK THE RIPPER TOUR START POINT THE TOUR DEPARTS AT 7PM FROM EXIT ONE OF ALDGATE EAST UNDERGROUND STATION

Should the District Line and the Hammersmith and City Line be shut for weekend engineering work, then Aldgate East Station itself will be closed. The good news is there are two nearby underground stations that are a short walk (10 to 15 minutes) away from our meeting point. These are...

Liverpool Street - situated on the Central Line as well as on the mainline Rail (convenient if you are coming from Essex or East London)

Bank Underground Station, located on the Central and Northern Lines (convenient for tour participants heading to the Jack the Ripper Tour from the King's Cross, Camden, Islington or the Angel districts of London). So is all you need to do is check which of these is most convenient for you, and when you arrive at either Bank or Liverpool Street Station, just follow our step by step directions below.

DIRECTIONS FROM LIVERPOOL STREET STATION

The walking time from Liverpool Street is 12 to 15 minutes at a gentle pace.

Exit Liverpool Street Station via the Bishopsgate Exit, which is located to the right of Platforms 12 and 13.

Having left Bishopsgate exit go left along Bishopsgate itself, ignoring the first traffic light crossing, which is almost directly outside the exit, and make your way to the next crossing to go over Bishopsgate, heading towards the Pitcher and Piano Bar and Dirty Dick's Pub.

Walk to the left of Dirty Dick's into Middlesex Street, the Woodin's Shades Pub on the opposite corner will be to your left. Keep ahead along Middlesex Street, following it as it swerves right, then keep straight, passing Therapy on the right.

Having passed East India House on the right follow Middlesex Street as it bends right and cross to the left side of Middlesex Street. Keep going, crossing Strype Street, Cobb Street and Wentworth Street and ahead over the unsigned New Goulston Street, passing The Bell pub on its opposite corner.

Keep ahead to reach the traffic lights. Once you're at them, go left onto Whitechapel High Street, keep straight over Goulston Street, head past the bus stop, keep ahead over Castle Street and pause at the traffic lights outside the entrance to Aldgate East Station (this is Exit Two). With your back to this exit, look across the main road and you will see Aldgate Tower on the opposite side. Exit One is the exit directly in front of the Tower, so just cross over to it.

DIRECTIONS FROM BANK UNDERGROUND STATION

If you are arriving at Bank Station via the Northern Line you can either transfer to the Central Line and take it one stop to Liverpool Street Station then follow the above directions, or you can walk to Aldgate East Station from Bank using the following step by step directions.

Exit Bank Station via Exit 5. As you go up the steps, take the left flight, and once on street level keep straight along Cornhill.

Cross Birchin Lane and keep ahead to reach the traffic lights at the top of Cornhill.

Cross straight over the traffic lights and, on their other side, keep ahead along Leadenhall Street.

Keep ahead over Whittington Avenue, over Lime Street and Billiter Street, then cross to the left side of Leadenhall Street.

Keep going over Creechurch Lane, pass the bus stop with the white X on it and, on arrival at the traffic lights, go over Mitre Street heading for St Botolph's church, which is clearly visible ahead.

Keep ahead past the church, passing to the right of it, and keep straight, with St Botolph's Church to your left.

Keep going along Aldgate High Street, passing Aldgate Station on your left, and ahead past 33 Aldgate House.

Cross over the next pedestrian crossing, towards the advertising hoardings opposite, and pass to the right of these billboards along Whitechapel High Street.

Keep going over Goulston Street, cross over Castle Street and pause at the traffic lights outside the entrance to Aldgate East Station (this is Exit Two).

With your back to this exit, look across the main road and you will see Aldgate Tower on the opposite side. Exit One is the exit directly in front of the Tower, so just cross over to it.
